INTRODUCING LAKKARI

Lakkari Pitt is a proud Gamilaroi
Ularoi/Yuwaalaraay woman from Walgett, New South Wales.

Lakkari's art is a contemporary take on the knowledge that her Elders and significant people in her life have passed down throughout generations.

Lakkari's art explores the movement, essence and stories of Country.

NATIONAL ART SCHOOL

In 2014, Lakkari was selected from a competitive pool of Visual Arts Higher School Certificate students to attend an intensive two week, 2D Module at the National Art School, Darlinghurst.

This period allowed Lakkari to expand her practice, interact with other artist and develop her skills in pursuing art professionally.

NATIONAL

'Wabu' means river bend in Gamilaroi language. Wabu is a collection of three paintings representing a journey across Country following two significant rivers, the Namoi and Barwon which meet at a junction.

Lakkari created this piece for her HSC Visual Arts major work.

Wabu was selected to be in the 2014 ART EXPRESS Exhibition.

Wabu proudly hangs in the multi purpose hall at Red Bend Catholic College.

2019 DREAMTIME AWARDS

Lakkari was commissioned to design the 2019 Dreamtime Awards program.

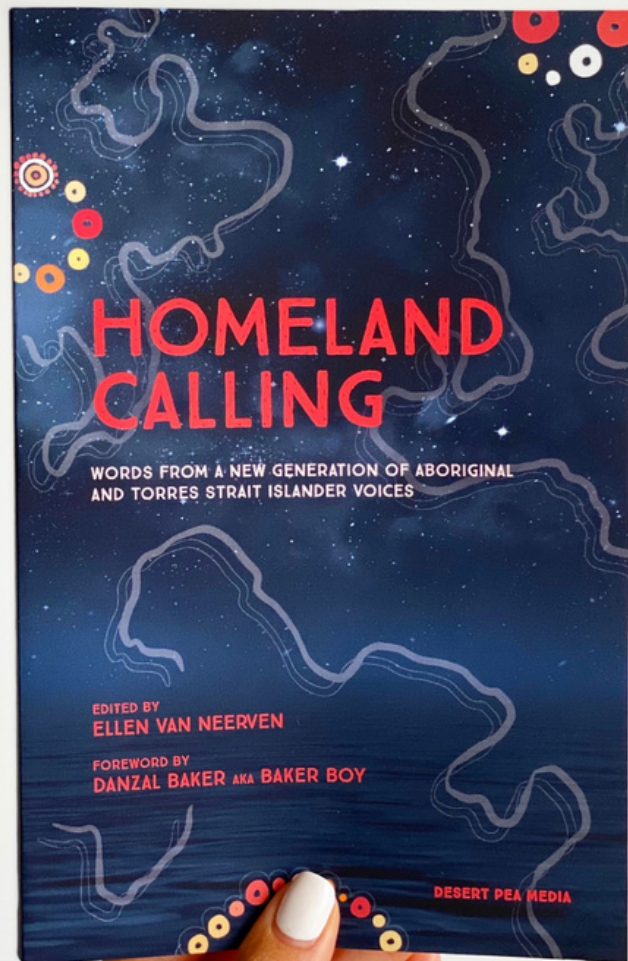

The National Dreamtime Awards is an opportunity for First Nations people from across our country to come together and recognise their excellence in the categories of Sport, Arts, Education, Health and Community.

The awards are attended by the country's most high profile political and community figures, sporting stars, entertainers and personalities.

This was the first time the Dreamtime Awards had commissioned an artist to design their program.

HOMELAND CALLING

Homeland Calling is a collection of poems created from hip-hop song lyrics that channel culture and challenge stereotypes. Written by First Nations youth from communities all around Australia. Homeland Calling is edited by award-winning author and poet Ellen van Neerven, and brought to you by Desert Pea Media.

Lakkari was commissioned to illustrate the cover and internal pages for Homeland Calling.

LAKKARI ART x TEACHERLATTE

The Lakkari Art x Teacherlatte collections were created with meaning and purpose, to celebrate Aboriginal culture.

The stamp collection was created to empower Aboriginal children to embrace their culture and identity and to feel proud. Each lanyard celebrates Country, including our Waterways, Sky and the connection we share with each other.

Both lanyards and stamps respectfully invite teachers and students of all nationalities and ethnicities to learn about the rich and dynamic use of Aboriginal symbols and culture. The collections also support First Nations community-led organisations working with Aboriginal young people, through the Lakkari Art x Teacherlatte Community Fund.

GO FOUNDATION

The GO Foundation aims to empower young Indigenous Australians through education and opportunity. It was founded by two proud Indigenous men and AFL greats Adam Goodes and Michael O'Loughlin.

Lakkari donated a hand painted Sherrin for their 2020 BIG CATCH UP event.

Gwydir FLOW-MER Program

2Rog Consulting in collaboration with the University of New England engaged Lakkari to provide an artistic and cultural portrayal of the six indicators studied under the Gwydir FLOW-MER Program, a Commonwealth Environmental Water Office initiative.

RENEWAL JIGSAW PUZZLE

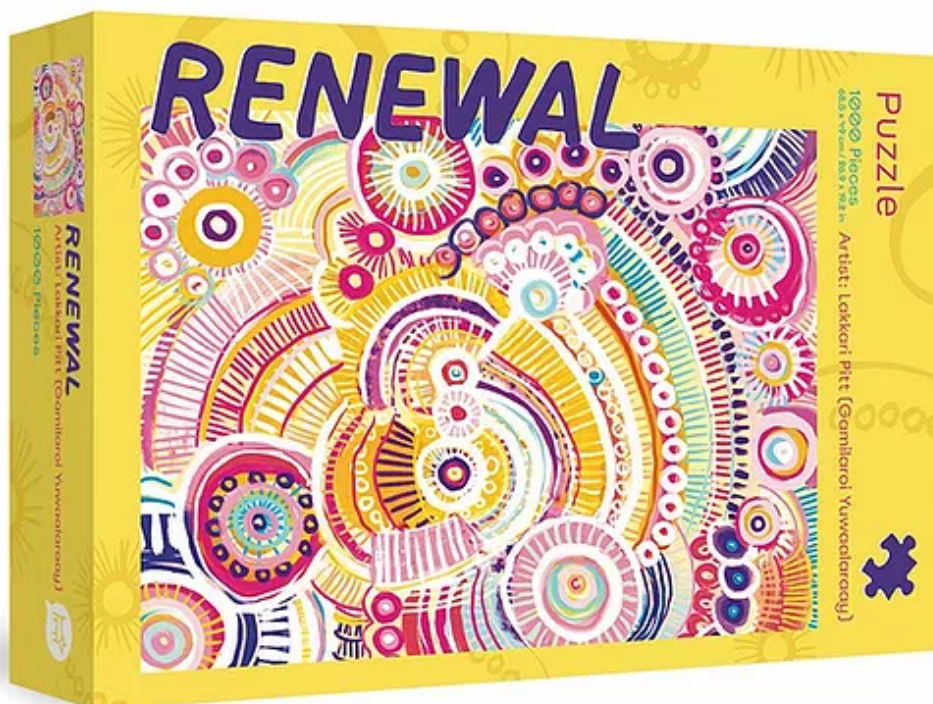

Image courtesy of Booktopia

Published by Hardie Grant, Renewal is a 1000 piece adult jigsaw puzzle. Renewal is inspired by native flowers, representing positive energy.

A bright colour palette was used to inspired all to create their own renewal.

Yinarr means woman in Gamilaroi language.

The Yinarr collection celebrates the strong, beautiful, resilient and caring females in our life. Yinarr was directly inspired by Lakkari's beautiful Guni, Merindah.

The 8 piece collection tells a story, which begins with Warranggal, which pays tribute to our female Elders, the yinarr who sacrificed so much for us to be proud of our culture. Yinarr then honours our Baagii and Maamaa (grandmothers), the matriarchs of our families. Lakkari then included two special artworks which are dedicated to her Guni (mother) and Dhagaan (brother). Yinarr then celebrates our Walgan (aunties), then our female Wambanhiya (cousins) & female Maliyaa (friends).

The line work featured throughout the Yinarr collection, reflects our female kin and pays homage to their feminine energy. These lines symbolise their guidance, strength, pride and resilience.

Yinarr was Lakkari's first collection/virtual exhibition.

KICKS TO MAKE CAHNGE

In collaboration with Children's Ground, this sneaker showcases the art of Aboriginal artist, Lakkari Pitt.

MEET THE 'HORNBILL LAKKARI' SNEAKER!

For every sneaker sold, $50 will be donated to empowering First Nations children and families by helping them live free from poverty and inequality.

MEET LAKKARI

As a proud Gamilaroi Ularoi/Yuwaalaraay woman, Lakkari's art is a take on the knowledge that her Elders passed down through generations, exploring the movement, essence and stories of Country.

MEET Children's Ground

Guided by local Elders, Children's Ground is dedicated to creating an empowered future for the next generation of Aboriginal children. Building on the social, cultural, and economic capital of each community they work in, the organisation creates places of safety and inclusion.
